WHALEBONE SKIRTS.

THE only perfect of a Whalebone Skirt, which gives a proper graceful and elegant form to a lady's dress, (unless taste is accompanied by the article is entirely worthless. This leading, by referring to Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashion for April, will notice that F. & T. HOLMES have, from actual experience, been successful in producing the most desirable article, and that their Patented SAMSON SKIRT unites the luminous application of the ladies' fancy light, pliable, and easily adjusted, and the only Skirt which is equally adapted to the parlor, the street, and the ground, are made in any size or length, and to suit our fashion, and in the opinion of thousands of ladies who have brought forth the most reliable goods of the kind in the market. We were the first to produce a Whalebone Skirt, and from our experience in the manufacture and sale of these goods, we have found that all kinds of cotton cord, and nearly all kinds of core and cable cords and bands, without the application of heat, will not recover their original form, but that they will remain flat and useless, and that they will not roll or curl when wet, and will not break. The public are cautioned against all worthless goods, as the market, since our goods have become popular and extensively known, has been flooded with all kinds of trash, and put up in our boxes and sold for ours, and in order to sell some of our core are called Whalebone Skirts. Some manufacturers, in their efforts to spoil by our reputation, have gone so far as to put a piece exactly our trade mark upon their goods.

FRANK LESLIE'S Gazette of Fashion for April, 1856, says: "Even genuine articles, manufactured by F. & T. Holmes' (registered Samson) Whalebone Skirt, and now to be found at the trade, in nearly all the principal cities in the United States and Canada, are of a superior quality, and the best article of the kind in the market."

National Republican Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT,

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM L DAYTON,

OF NEW JERSEY.

FOR GOVERNOR,

HANNIBAL HAMLIN,

OF SEE FIRST PAGE.

Republican State Convention

Unanimous and Enthusiastic Nomination of Hon. Hannibal Hamlin for Governor.

The Republican State Convention, which assembled at Portland on the 8th inst., was one of the largest, most harmonious and enthusiastic gatherings of the people ever held in Maine. It was a spontaneous uprising of the people in favor of Freedom and Reform. It was only intended as a purely Delegate Convention, to transact the usual business of nominating a Candidate to be chosen Governor of the State, and with them came the people themselves from all sections of the State. The streets were crowded; long trains of cars from the Railroads took to the city load after load of the people, until the City of Portland seemed full and running over. The Halls were filled the day previous to the Convention, and the Republicans of the city hospitably left the back strings of their houses untied, and gates wide open to their friends, who had unexpectedly come upon them. Tents were erected upon Munjoy and between for the Military, the several Musical Bands, and Strangers and thus all were accommodated.

The occasion was a joyous and glorious inspiration of the up-rising of a free people to renew their pledges for the maintenance of Freedom of Speech, Freedom of the Press, Freedom of the Territories and Freemont.

Our space will not admit, to-day, of our laying before the readers of the Courier the many interesting incidents which occurred, and which thrilled upon the hearts of those who were present. All that we can now do is to refer our readers to the report of the proceedings of the Convention, which we copy from the Portland Advertiser.

The nomination of Hon. Hannibal Hamlin as the Republican candidate for Governor, was in strict obedience to the will and wishes of the people. It was a nomination most cordially to be made. Mr. H. merit has long placed him at the Representative men of this State in favor of Freedom in the Territories. He was first elected to the United States Senate, on this basis, and there he has continued to stand, and stands to-day; while the wire-pullers and leaders of the Democratic party have gone off in the direction of slavery extension in order to ascend the drum by which fall from the table of the slave power.

It was most just and fitting that for this position of freedom, the original and indefatigable son of the father who established our Government, Mr. Hamlin should have a place in the hearts of the people, and be put forward as their standard-bearer in the struggle to maintain Freedom, when civil war in defiance of the sectional have power, like its equilibrium and in creation, and threatens to put it if slavery compromise.

In this position Mr. Hamlin has been placed by the unanimous voice of the people of Maine, who are in favor of freedom. The Convention has echoed and gave form to this sentiment. The people will consummate the work at the polls of September, and proudly carry them the banner into the Constitutional chair of Maine. In his nomination, a truly Whig and equally sturdy Democrat of other days united, and they will unite in the election because their love of country brings them together as brethren, when the cause of Freedom is attacked. The election of Mr. Hamlin is a unionist early determined, and the documents will be produced in the fall of September in proof of the fact. We have the Republicans, everywhere, joy on account of their present prospects.

The State of Maine, the well known, daily paper published at Portland, and heretofore devoted to the Smart Whig cause, brought out under its editorial head, on Wednesday, the names of Fremont and Dayton, as the candidates worthy of its support for President and Vice President. This accession to the Republican cause is an important indication of the progress of right sentiment united with right action. May the good cause go on until the North shall become a unit on the subject of Freedom.

The Brewer Artillery, under the command of Capt. Sweet, that accompanied the Penobscot delegation to the Republican Convention, while in Portland, won for themselves, a high reputation for gentlemanly bearing and military precision. The citizens of Portland declared that no military company ever visited their city leaving so favorable an impression. This is high praise but it is well deserved.

Wide Caution.—The Machesa Union says that Mr. Daniel Cortbell of Jonesboro, caught a Wolf in a steel trap on the night of the 3d inst. He had killed nine sheep on the farmers in the vicinity, and they had been assiduously hunting for him. He was more than five feet in length and very heavy.

Died suddenly at the Theological Seminary in this city, on the 5th inst., Mr. N. P. Baker, much beloved and respected member of the Senior class. Mr. Baker was a native of Conway, Mass., graduated at Amherst in 1843, and entered the Seminary the same year. He belongs to a family, some of the members of which we are told, have been afflicted with insanity. He was so all his life, during his Collegiate life, and was obliged to leave College on a season. But in connection with the Seminary he has been healthful, cheerful and happy, until within the last few weeks, when the thought of finishing his preparatory studies, going out into the world and assuming the responsibilities of a minister of Christ, has seemed to oppress him, and almost overwhelm him. He was known to be serious, depressed in spirits, unable to sleep, and otherwise showing marks of nervous derangement. Means were used to recreate him, and restore the natural tone of his mind, and it was thought with some effect. He has been the right to be better, for several days. But in a paroxysm of his complaint, when no one was watching him, or looking for such an event, he was left to loose the silver cord, and rather himself into eternity. Under all the circumstances, no one can regard him as responsible for this act, with respect to the manner of his death, this is to be pitied, but not blamed.

Mr. Baker was a good scholar, an amiable and excellent young man, and a devoted christian. He was much beloved by his instructors, his classmates, and all his friends. He was an acceptable preacher, and gave high promise of usefulness in the church and world. But his Divine Lord has seen fit, in a most mysterious manner, to remove him, and we can only bow to his sovereign will.

The verdict of the jury of inquest was, that Mr. Baker came to his death by his own hand, in a fit of derangement.

Fourth Dedication of the Old Church.—The Congregational Church in Augusta was discovered to have been set on fire by some person or persons, who broke open the cellar and fired the floor. The alarm was given, when it was found that the floor of the Brahin had been cut in several places. The fire was fortunately discovered in season to be easily extinguished. The Mayor has offered a reward of $300 for the apprehension of the guilty parties. It is supposed to have been done by boys, from feelings of revenge, as there was a watchin the building to prevent its ranging at the ball.

We are under renewed obligations to Hyde's Express, and also to Messr. Cushing, the attentive and gentlemanly Clerk of the steamer Daniel Webster, for copies of Boston papers received yesterday in advance of the mail.

Hancock Co.—All cases from this County were also continued to be argued in writing by agreement of counsel.

Mr. Sumner.—A letter from Washington, written on the 7th inst., to the New York Tribune, says

"I saw Mr. Sumner yesterday. He will be better than he had been for several days previous. On Friday, he experienced a feeling of thumping of the brain, at other times he felt the heavy pressure upon the head, and severe, sharp pains shot at the temples. These symptoms have been felt since the wound is healed. Yesterday, when I saw him, he was reclining, and though quite weak, informed me that he thought he was much better than he had been for some days past. He is directed by the physicians to avoid everything of an exciting nature.

Fire.—The low and dwelling house, owned by Mr. Edward Tuttle, situated on Exchange street, was discovered to have been set on fire by some person or persons, who broke open the cellar door and fired the floor. The alarm was given, when it was found that the floor of the Brahin had been cut in several places. The fire was fortunately discovered in season to be easily extinguished. The Mayor has offered a reward of $300 for the apprehension of the guilty parties. It is supposed to have been done by boys, from feelings of revenge, as there was a watchin the building to prevent its ranging at the ball.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

By the Early Cars Delegates Meeting over land in Maine.

At an early hour yesterday morning the steamer Admiral arrived here from Boston, bringing the delegates from Washington County. About 8 o'clock, this train on the P. S. & P. Soon after, Kennebec on the York and Cumberland, the Portland and Kennebec, the Androscoggin and Kennebec, and the Penobscot Railroads arrived with large delegations from various parts of the State. The Androscoggin delegation was accompanied by the Lewiston and Auburn Bands. Processions were formed at the Depot and marched to Deering Hall, which was completely packed and jammed in every part.

At quarter past 10 o'clock, the Convention was called to order by Mr. Pennel of Augusta, Chairman of the State Committee, who after some appropriate remarks, nominated Hon. This nomination was received with great applause, and Mr. Perham took the chair and addressed the Convention in a few brief remarks congratulating the members upon the glorious prospect before them.

Charles W Goddard, Esq., of Danville, and Wm. L. Rust, Esq., of Belfast, were appointed temporary Secretaries.

A fervent and appropriate prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Drummond of Lewiston.

Carleton, Lincoln; C B Woodbury, Piscataquis; J M Lincoln, Sagadahoc; J B Lyford, Androscoggin; Wm. P Harriman, Waldo; B F Ingalls, Hancock; Spalding Rennison, Washington; Doct. Hall, Aroostook.

It was voted that the Convention proceed to an informal ballot for a candidate for Governor at 3 o'clock, P. M.

On motion of Mr. Cowen, it was voted that the nominations be requested to present to the Convent on the names of two candidates for Electors at Large.

Hon. Noah Smith, Jr., of Calais.
Hon. Sidney Perham, Woodstock.

The following gentlemen were reported for the State committee for the ensuing year:

Mr. Talbot of Farmington, from the committee on resolutions, reported the following:

1st. Resolved, That this Convention cordially endorses the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and of the Federal Constitution as construed by the founders and early statesmen of this government, and that in a firm adherence to these principles consist the hope of the patriot, and the safety and perpetuity of our glorious Union.

2d. Resolved, That the administration of Samuel Wells has been distinguished by a spirit of extravagancy and partisan corruption, that it has been governed more by a desire to advance the interests of political favorites than by honest efforts to promote the moral and material welfare of the State; and that it has manifestly and palpably misrepresented the public sentiment of Maine on the all-engrossing question of slavery extension.

3d. Resolved, That in the great and patriotic cause in which we are engaged, on the success of which depends, as we believe, the very existence of our free institutions, we earnestly invite the co-operation and co-operation of men of all parties, however differing in other questions.

The present is a crisis so momentous, that all other issues—State and national—should be suppressed—all old prejudices forgotten—and all good men should unite in a spirit of large liberality, and brave patriotism for the preservation of that liberty which is the life of the Confederation and the Union.

4th. Resolved, That this Convention hereby gives its cordial, hearty and unanimous support in the nomination of Hannibal Hamlin as a candidate for Governor of Maine; that his firmness and independence in the cause of freedom have endeared him to our hearts, and that we will individually as well as collectively render every honorable exertion to secure his election.

Mr. Baker of Augusta presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the unanimous sense of this Convention, that the candidate for Governor in the hearts of the United States, notwithstanding his nomination until he is called to other duties, and that he should not accept of any office, or be called to [illegible] while the committee were out, Mr. Noah Baker of Penobscot was loudly called for, and made his appearance on the platform amid enthusiastic cheers.

On motion of Mr. Goddard, the thanks of the Convention were tendered to the Lewiston Brass Band, and to Wights Brass Band, for the excellent music they have discoursed to the Convention to-day. Three cheers were then given to the two Bands.

The Convention was then addressed by Hon. Noah Smith of Calais, Mr. Farwell of Hockland, Gen. Cochran of Waldoboro, Joseph Williams, Esq. of Augusta, and Hon. F. O. J. Smith.

The meeting then adjourned to half-past 7 o'clock to meet at the City Hall.

Evening.

The City Hall was packed full in the evening—the people showed no diminution of the enthusiastic feeling which had predominated through the day. Mr. Lebroke, of Foxcroft, was called to the stand, and made a most excellent speech, many called it, the speech of the Convention. He expressed the designs of the slave power and enforced the duties of freemen in a strain of manly eloquence. He was followed by F. O. J. Smith, Esq., who made one of his most masterly and convincing arguments.

Settlers for Kansas.—The New Bedford Standard learns that a company of emigrants for Kansas will leave that city on the 21st inst. The party will be accompanied by a gentleman well acquainted with pioneer life, who will see all his companions safely through.

A Preacher a Centur Old.—Elder Marshall, a colored man, 101 years old, a resident of Georgia, preached in one of the Baptist churches of New York on Sunday last. He is described as robust and hearty, weighing about 200 pounds, and having a full-toned voice and a manner far from disagreeable.

CARD.

The Brewer Artillery, tender their sincere thanks to the Fremont Club of Bangor, and citizens generally, for the pleasure of a visit to Portland, together made under their auspices on the occasion of the late Republican State Convention. All the incidents of the visit were of a most agreeable and the occasion throughout was, in short, one of great pleasure. For the excellent music by various bands and bands which joined them at points upon the route, for the grand treatment they received of the officers of the steamer Daniel Webster, both going and returning, for the beautiful shower furnished them after their arrival at Portland, and indeed, the treatment of their reception everywhere they turned, their best thanks are due. To the Fire and Hose Guards, Capt. Roberts, with whom we [illegible] upon whose invitation they visited the banks of the beautiful Casco Bay, and [illegible] the hospitalities of Commercial House, their heartfelt acknowledgments are extended. Their gentlemanly bearing and [illegible] duty deserves of their brethren of the Fire Guards will always be welcome to [illegible] brance by the Brewer Artillery.

PIANOS!

We are still the only authorized agents here for the above firm, or, as our non-neighbors alluringly express it, in their advertisement in another part of this paper, Mrs. Chickering's establishment. But it seems that they were Women's Rights men enough a year or two ago, to sell her Pianos, notwithstanding a verbal contract between us, made a year before, relinquishing the agency to us. Since then they have made the discovery that Brown & Allen's Pianos are equally as good for articles as Mrs. Chickering's, and that Mr. Brown, (who by the way is a fine man, and an old friend of ours,) was engaged in Mr. Chickering's interests to the tune of six dozens, when the facts of the case are that he left several years before.

We constantly on hand a good assortment of Chickering & Sons' Pianos; also, a few of Brown & Allen's, which the public are invited to examine and compare. TOMPKINS & MORRIS.
